

ELIE SAAB

JUNIOR

FALL-WINTER 2021-2022 COLLECTION

ELIE SAAB JUNIOR Fall Winter 2021-2022 collection is an enchanting mix of refined elegance, a conquest of precious details and noble fabrics interpreted in a contemporary and modern style.

The Junior collection this season takes its inspiration from ELIE SAAB Prefall collection's theme 70s American Allure going in a journey that begins with Ceremony, continues through Party and culminates in Daily chic.

High Ceremony enhances the opulence of organza and duchess satin in shades of elegant midnight blue and candid white. The precious all-over gold embroidery appears on the dress and organza skirt, on the shirt collar and blazer, on the belt of the trousers and long dress. The ELIE SAAB monogram in champagne adds its superbly majestic tones to this line of occasion wear.

The ELIE SAAB girls dress in pink in the Ceremony proposal. Mikado and tulle are brightened with shiny gold touches and softer constructed forms adding fun and elegance. The long dress, trousers and dress are all about flounces created with special cut effects. Monograms are embroidered on knitwear, while bows take over the shirt and double-breasted coat with contrasting collar in eco fur.

The precious iridescent taffeta with its play of lights, gives a dreamlike character to the garments for the festive wear in shades of red and black. The waistband is well defined using pleats and belts with velvet bow. The logo becomes an elegant texture on blazers and midi dresses, or an all-over design on wide skirts, dresses, shorts, and through to the soft, warm puffer jacket.

A rich macramé defines the total black maxi dress with sinuous scalloped trim, as in its mini variation, where baroque embroidery can be seen from the bow through to the eco fur shrug and embroidered gold logo. Outerwear is enriched with voluminous details and the reference to the women's line is important in the more structured pieces such as the black tuxedo and the double-breasted coat with tone-on-tone eco fur details.

The extreme elegance of the Party looks are an absolute dream. The maxi dress shines with gold and its volumes with a wow effect, are contemporary and romantic. The Milano stitch blazer adds its bright touch to any style, such as the maxi playsuit with wide sleeves. The ELIE SAAB logo is printed in gold cursive. Maxi bows in black mikado, and wide skirts in tulle satisfy lovers of volume. And straight from the seventies comes a focus on animalier prints with new designs in grey, black and gold for dresses and trousers.

ELIE SAAB

JUNIOR

Daily chic from ELIE SAAB is all about softness, with gentle waves and pale accents. A floral print embraces the monogram taken from the women's collection, in an amusing interpretation of an elegant style for daytime wear, too. Light blue knitwear with a fine golden bow, embroidered to add that unmistakable trait of the Maison, and also found on the maxi black tracksuit and the comfy ruched dress. Puffs and ruffles have been used on refined shirts that pair beautifully with the maxi circle skirt and the palazzo pants in denim.